2004 MGCCNWC TULIP RALLYE INSTRUCTIONS!

Are you ready for a GREAT TIME?

[Remember: Double quotes (" ") indicate a hint, a play on words, or a pun relating to the answer; single quotes ( ' ') indicate a direct quote from the object which is the answer. Make sense to you? Good. Maybe you can explain it to us someday. Just kidding! Good luck, now! Remember: You have been allowed four hours maximum to complete the rallye and turn-in this score sheet. Plenty of time, really. Please print your answers!

AND YER' OFF! Wave ta-ta to all the sad-faced rallyists still waiting their turn to go. Taunts, laughter, and silly faces at those left behind are always encouraged. Keep a sharp eye now and have fun!

You should be getting near the tulip fields by now. Traffic could be heavy at times, so be patient. Sadly, many of the flowers have been harvested. Enjoy the scenery. The tulips grown in this area are sold locally as well as across the country. In recent years, we have seen several changes in the type of crops being grown. Blueberry fields are increasing, along with other berry crops. You can spot the blueberry fields by the reddish tone.

The name "Deception Pass" is derived from Captain Vancouver's realization that what he had mistaken for a peninsula was actually an island. The captain named the inlet at which he was anchored to commemorate the error.

Ebey's Landing National Historical Reserve Information

Ebey's Landing National Historical Reserve provides a vivid historical record of Pacific Northwest history, including the first exploration of Puget Sound by Captain George Vancouver in 1792; early settlement by Colonel Isaac Ebey, an important figure in Washington Territory; growth and settlement resulting from the Oregon Trail and the Westward migration; the Donation Land Laws (1850-1855); and the continued growth and settlement of the town of Coupeville.

Within the fast growing Puget Sound region, Ebey's Landing NHR has quickly become the remaining area where a broad spectrum of Northwest history is still clearly visible in the landscape. The historical landscape of the reserve appears to today's visitors much as it did a century ago, when New England sea captains were drawn to Penn Cove. Historic farms are still farmed, forests harvested and century-old buildings used as homes or places of business.

Unlike many National Park units, the 25 square mile historical reserve encompasses a mixture of federal, state, county and private property, all managed in a way that preserves its historic essence. This means that changes in the cultural landscape will continue but in a way that respects the past.

There are two state parks within Ebey's Landing NHR as well as the historic waterfront town of Coupeville, one of the oldest towns in Washington State

You will be turning in this rally sheet to one of the Rally staff, so make sure everything is filled out completely as possible. You will be given your time as you pull in. Don't forget to fill in your mileage as well. Got a hard luck story? Circle yes or no here. Write your story on the back of this form to be considered for an award. Do this after you got your time and mileage written down. Then, write your story and turn in this form. Your answers will be checked by highly skilled rally technicians (Anyone we can get to volunteer) and the winners will be announced shortly.

NOW is the time to take a well earned rest. You are invited to enjoy the Northern Lights Casino for food, drink, and maybe some gaming.

We truly hope you have enjoyed your adventure today. As you know, we don't take ourselves too seriously and the main ambition here is to have a good time. If you had fun, perhaps that is the most desirable prize of all. As for the questions, we have several dozen lawyers on retainer who have advised us not to say anything, but we can tell you the questions come from Brother Ladvenue from the St. Tadius Monastery on the Island of Rhodes. He is blind and deaf. He refuses contact with the outside world except to pass on these questions to us once a year. That's our story and we're stickin' to it!

Thanks again and we'll see you all next year!!!

Have a safe trip home!!!
